

SO YOU WANT A CAREER IN NATIONAL SECURITY & U.S. INTELLIGENCE?

Career Paths for CSUB Students

WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 2, 2026
12:30–2:00 PM | STUDENT UNION MPR

Light Refreshments will be served.

FEATURED SPEAKER

Damian Sergiu Antonescu

Chief of Strategy, Policy, and Outreach

Office of the Undersecretary of War, Intelligence and Security

Damian Sergiu Antonescu is a CSUB alumnus who entered Defense Intelligence Agency service in 2005. Since then, he has served in roles spanning the DIA Directorate for Operations, U.S. Defense Attaché assignments in Moscow and Vilnius, assignments to NSW SEAL Team 18, and leadership positions within the Defense Attaché Service and DIA's Americas & Transregional Threats Center.

He holds graduate degrees from the Naval War College and the Institute of World Politics and is a commissioned Intelligence Officer in the U.S. Navy Reserves. His highest foreign honors include the Lithuanian Military Intelligence Medal of Distinction (#18), and The Most Venerable Order of St John (Commander), awarded by Queen Elizabeth II.

Learn about career paths in intelligence, national security, defense, and international affairs.

Q&A to Follow Presentation

CALIFORNIA STATE UNIVERSITY
BAKERSFIELD

College of Natural Science, Mathematics and Engineering
College of Social Science and Education
College of Business and Public Administration

Student ID's Required for Admission